

Inspired Services

You might be a candidate for these services if:

- You're starting a new business and don't know what to do
- Your creative juices are stopped up
- Your organization's structure doesn't get it done
- You need to climb the ladder one more rung
- Help they made me leader!
- You don't know what you want to do when you grow up
- Your kids are in control instead of you

Overview of Services:

Assist clients by providing consulting and educational services in:

- New business startups
- Organizational design and management
- Service and product development
- Conducting seminars and workshops
- Creativity, invention, and entrepreneurialism
- Personal and leadership development
- Auctioneering (benefits and fundraisers only)
- Youth development and youth camps

Description of Services:

- Coach clients in developing and implementing a start up work plan.
- Review and provide insight regarding the efficiency and effectiveness of the organizational and management structure within a company/non-profit to achieve (support) its mission.
- Facilitate creative product and service development sessions to meet customer needs and future trends.
- Assist clients in designing business workshops and seminars to increase employees' business and personal acumen by specifying objectives and outcomes and then detailing curriculum plans.
- Coach clients in the completion of creative projects such as books, CDs and games.
- Provide assessment tools to assist individuals in determining their cultural preferences and fit to a specific organization.
- Coach executives via one on one coaching sessions.
- Provide Heart Path™ seminars that teach parents biblical principals for youth development.
- Conduct short auction sessions at fundraising events.

Potential Benefits:

- Growth, growth, growth!
- Accomplished goals and fulfilled dreams!
- Benefit funds raised quickly!
- New ideas – new ways of thinking!
- You're in your groove!

Interested?

Email us (inspired desiGn, LLC) at resources@inspired-id.com