“It’s all His design”

You might be a candidate for these services if:

- You’re tired of chairs that don’t sit right
- Your table looks like everyone else’s
- You want to design something you pass on for generations
- Your space is frustrating you – too full or too empty
- Your rooms need to change to accommodate life changes
- You want something that reflects what’s important to you
- You don’t like what your landscape says about you

Overview of Services:

Assist clients in designing life spaces and products to meet their every day needs. Includes:

- Inspirational layout within a space – either inside or out;
- Inspirational landscaping ideas that reflect the inhabitants;
- Inspirational design of home furnishings; and
- Inspirational clothing designs.

Description of Services:

Identify the important characteristics that the space (inside/outside) or product needs to portray.

Assist in the high level prototype design process which includes gathering visual examples, sketching rough ideas, and detailing key characteristics in a concept.

Develop the concept “plausibility criteria” to send to potential designers and craftsmen for quotation and detailing.

Assist in obtaining initial pricing and timing, as well as unique/in-depth specification requirements.

Provide insight and coaching to the client during the production and completion phases of the project.

Potential Benefits:

Spaces and products that :

- Scream of you!
- Fit you like a glove!
- Are unlike anyone else’s!
- Perform their role with pizzazz!
